

COHABITANT – LUMP SUM ON DEATH

If you and your deceased cohabitant were not resident in Denmark and were not registered with ATP as cohabitants, you need to complete this form to request payment of the lump sum benefit from ATP. You also have to fill in the bank information form on page 2. In order for you to qualify for the lump sum benefit, the following conditions must be fulfilled:

- the deceased died no later than five years after the retirement age of the deceased.
- the deceased must have been a member of ATP for at least two years after 1 January 2002, and
- since 1 January 2002, the deceased must have paid the equivalent of two years' full contributions to ATP.
- The lump sum decreases by DKK 10,000 every year after the retirement age of the deceased. The amount will lapse entirely five years after the retirement age of the deceased.

ATP checks whether these conditions are fulfilled prior to payment of the lump sum benefit.

SHARED ADDRESS

In order to qualify for the lump sum benefit, you also need to provide documentation that you shared the same address for the last two years preceding the death of your partner. Documentation to this effect must be submitted with this form. Please visit www.lifeindenmark.dk/atp for information on correct documentation.

Documentation to substantiate that you shared the same address is enclosed (please tick):

DEATH CERTIFICATE

If the death of your partner is not registered in Denmark you also have to attach a copy of the death certificate.

A copy of the death certificate is enclosed (please tick):

SOLEMN DECLARATION

In order to receive payment of a lump sum benefit from ATP, I, the undersigned, declare by my signature that I and the deceased lived together under marital conditions and that we fulfilled the conditions for entering into marriage or registered partnership during the last two years preceding the death of my partner.

I, the undersigned, declare by my signature that ATP can contact relevant authorities in the country, in which I have informed that I and the deceased lived in, to confirm the information I have given. For this purpose ATP can transfer information regarding name of deceased, my name, our address and that we fulfilled the conditions for entering into marriage.
