Your signature

You can send the form to Udbetaling Danmark, International Pension via:

- Via Digital Post from www.borger.dk/international-pension-kontakt
- by email to intpension@atp.dk or
- by regular post sent to Kongens Vænge 8, 3400 Hillerød, Denmark

Please remember that you must inform us of any changes

When you receive social pension, you have a duty of disclosure. This means that you must let us know immediately if there are any changes to the information you have supplied to us earlier as this may have an impact on the amount of social pension you are entitled to. For example, you must notify us if:

- You become single, get married or start cohabiting

As a general rule, you are cohabiting if you live with another person to whom you could get married under Danish law. Even though you do not live with a person, you may well be cohabiting. You are cohabiting if you have arranged your circumstances in such a way that, overall, you enjoy the same advantages as married and cohabiting persons. The advantages may be both practical and financial.

- You move to a new address

- You move to a new country, including Greenland or the Faroe Islands

Your right to a pension may change or cease when you move to another country.

- You are staying outside your country of residence

As a general rule, you may stay outside your country of residence for a total period of up to 6 months during a 12-month period without this affecting your pension. However, you must have a real and actual place of residence in your country of residence, and you must be registered in the national register in that country.

- Your or your spouse's/cohabitant's assets change

This may be the case if you or your spouse/cohabitant receives an inheritance, buys or sells securities or receives a return on the assets.

- You or your spouse/cohabitant has income which has changed

As a general rule, you must change your preliminary income assessment on www.skat.dk, if you need to provide information about changes in income that are subject to tax in Denmark. The Danish Tax Administration (Skattestyrelsen) automatically sends your information to us.

If your pension is calculated with effect from a date other than 1st January, you must, however, notify us directly for the rest of the year of the change in income at www.borger.dk/international-pension. In these cases, it is not enough to change your preliminary income assessment.

- You or your spouse/cohabitant has income which is not taxable in Denmark

You must always provide us with information about income, which is not taxable in Denmark. You must also provide us with later changes in these incomes.

Remember to check whether the information we have about you is correct

You must remember to check the information from which we calculate your pension and notify us if it is incorrect. This could be, for example, if we calculate your pension based on information that you are single, when you are actually married or cohabiting, or we calculate your pension as cohabiting, even if you are actually single.

We exchange information about you

Udbetaling Danmark is required to inform you about the following:

When you apply for/receive social pension, we are allowed to exchange information about you

Udbetaling Danmark is obligated to exchange relevant information about you with other parties to ensure that you receive the benefit that you are entitled to.

When you apply for/receive social pension, you consent to Udbetaling Danmark's exchange of information about you. We can exchange information about you with relevant parties, including public authorities, employers, banks etc., when this exchange is necessary to process your case.

What information can we exchange?

We can do the following without asking for your consent:

- receive financial information from other public authorities and unemployment insurance funds (a-kasser) if the information is necessary to process your case, and we can also ask the municipality, to check your wage payments,
- share information about you with the municipality to recalculate, offset, do additional necessary follow-ups, or check the disbursement of benefits you might not be entitled to receive,

- combine our own information about you with necessary, non-sensitive personal data from other Danish or international authorities or unemployment insurance funds (a-kasser) for the purpose of controlling whether or not you are entitled to state pension. In certain cases, we can take the result of the data combination and further combine it with information about you from PostNord or other providers of postal services.
- exchange necessary information about the case with the municipality, e.g. what the case scope and objectives are, which case steps have been taken, and if we or the municipality has opened a case to check whether you are entitled to other benefits. We can still exchange necessary information with the municipality in this manner if your case has been closed within the last 6 months.

We can receive information from relevant parties, including other public authorities, employers, banks etc. in cases regarding repayment of benefits, if the information is necessary to process the case.

Legal framework

Section 5-10, section 11a-11b and section 12 of the Danish Act on Udbetaling Danmark (Udbetaling Danmark-loven)

Why and how Udbetaling Danmark processes your personal data

Udbetaling Danmark is the data controller

Udbetaling Danmark is responsible for processing the personal data that we have about you.

In this privacy notice you can read more about the types of personal data we process about you, how we process your personal data and the data protection rights available to you when we process your personal data.

Why we process your personal data

We process your personal data for the following purposes:

- To investigate whether you meet the conditions for receiving a state pension and to assess whether you are entitled to a state pension and, if this is the case, to ensure that you are paid the state pension.
- To train our employees and improve customer service, if you call us and consent to having the call recorded for training purposes. You can withdraw your consent at any time.
- To test our IT systems in connection with development, optimisation, or error handling.

What personal data do we collect about you and where do we collect it?

We only collect information about you that is necessary to process your case.

We collect the following personal data about you:

Non-sensitive personal data

- We receive your civil registration number (CPR number) and other basic information from The Danish Civil Registration System (CPR)
- We receive income information etc. from The Danish Tax Agency
- We receive information about account numbers/Nem-Konto from the Agency for Digitisation.
- We receive information about any potential irregularities related to mail from PostNord or other postal service companies.
- We receive information about stays at nursing homes, municipal administration agreements, etc. from municipalities.
- We receive account information from your bank.
- We receive common basic data including periods of residency and insurance as well as TIN number (Tax Identification Number) from foreign authorities.
- We receive information about whether you have complained about a decision from the National Social Appeals Board.
- We receive information about estates following a death from the Danish Official Gazette

Criminal convictions and offences

- We receive information about violations of the Danish Penal Code's provisions on terrorism, travel bans, failure to comply with a sentence, etc. from the Danish Prosecution Service.

- We receive information about prosecution/sentencing, confiscation of passports and reversions of such sentences/confiscations from the Danish Police.
- We receive information about prison stays, etc. from the Danish Department of Prisons and Probation

How do we process your personal data?

We process your personal data in a number of ways, including when we make decisions, calculate, disburse or adjust your state pension or when we take other necessary steps to process your case.

To check whether you are entitled to state pension; we can combine our own information with necessary, non-sensitive personal data that we have collected from other parties. Our own information about you is the information that you have provided and the information we receive from other departments within Udbetaling Danmark, e.g. cohabiting with another pensioner.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We can share information about you with other parties that are authorised to receive it, e.g. public authorities, institutions, and relevant private companies, see list below.

We share the following personal data about you:

Non-sensitive personal data

- We pass on information about payments, etc. to the Danish Tax Agency.
- We pass on information about entering/leaving Denmark, deaths, stays at nursing homes, etc. to municipalities.
- We pass on information about payments to your bank/NemKonto (Agency for Digitisation).
- We pass on information about income, assets, pension entitlements, etc. to the Danish Agency for Labour Market and Recruitment.
- We pass on information about income, assets, pension entitlements, etc. to Statistics Denmark.
- We pass on information about whether you are receiving an income-independent benefit, but not which benefit, to pension institutions.
- We pass on basic data about reimbursement claims, etc. to the Danish Debt Collection Agency.
- We pass on information in your case that is relevant if you complain about a decision to the National Social Appeals Board.
- We pass on information about your civil registration no. to our mail service provider.
- In some cases, we have to pass on your case to the Danish National Archives.

Transfer of personal data to countries outside the EU/EEA

If you have previously lived or worked in a country outside the EU/EEA countries, we may have to transfer information about you to relevant national authorities in the country in question, so that they can process your case.

How long do we store your personal data?

We store your personal data while we process your case and delete it 5 years after the year, in which the case is closed. Your personal data is stored after the case is closed in accordance with current legislation (forældelses-, bogførings- and arkivloven).

If you have called us and consented to having the call recorded, we automatically delete the recording after 2 months. You can always have the recording deleted sooner by contacting us.

Automated individual decisions

We can make decisions solely by automated means. The automated individual decisions are based on data that we collect from public registers. This data is automatically compared with the information on your case and together these sets of data determine whether you are entitled to state pension.

What are your data protection rights?

Right to object

You can object to Udbetaling Danmark's processing of your personal data.

Right to access

You can obtain a copy of the information we process about you.

Other rights

You can also request:

- to have your personal data rectified or deleted
- to have your personal data transferred to you or to someone else (the right to data portability)
- to have our processing of your personal data restricted

There may be exceptions to the listed data protection rights, as they are not absolute and may be conditional or limited. For instance, it is not certain that you have the right to have your personal data deleted in specific instances. This right depends on the reason why we process your personal data, meaning it depends on the specific circumstances connected to our data processing.

If you have custody of or parental responsibility for a minor and information about the child is a part of your case, the data protection rights also apply to the child.

If you have questions

Udbetaling Danmark, Pension
